

2024 FEBRUARY

NEWS
LETTERGreetings from GVision USA

We hope you had a prosperous month to start 2024. As the new year continues into February, we hope you enjoy the upcoming holidays of Valentine's Day and Presidents Day. We here at Gvision USA have a few announcements to make for this month including some events we are attending as well as an upcoming article we are publishing on ethernet powered displays that we are excited to share.

There are a few events our representatives will be attending, If you are attending any of these events, please reach out to Jennifer.lee@gvision-usa.com to schedule a meeting if you wish to speak with us.

Finally, we are excited to be sharing an article we have written on the prevalence of Power-over-Ethernet displays, commonly referred to as PoE. In the article, we go over the benefits, applications, and projected growth of this popular technology, while also introducing the emerging All-over-Ethernet (AoE) technology that will be utilized in one of our cutting-edge monitors to be released this year. The article is scheduled to be released in the upcoming weeks so be on the lookout for its arrival.
