

2025 JANUARY

NEWS LETTER

HAPPY ★
NEW YEAR

As we welcome 2025, we want to take a moment to thank you for being a part of our journey. Your trust and support inspire us to innovate and deliver even better solutions each year. Let's step into this exciting new chapter together, embracing fresh opportunities and continued success!

WEST
2025

Join Us at WEST 2025!

We're thrilled to announce our participation in WEST 2025, the premier Sea Services event in San Diego. Taking place at the San Diego Convention Center, this event is your opportunity to explore cutting-edge solutions for maritime and defense applications.

Gvision will be exhibiting alongside our valued partner, TD SYNEX, showcasing our latest innovations. Don't miss the chance to visit us and learn how our advanced display technologies can transform your operations.

For more details, visit the WEST 2025 website and stay tuned for updates from us!

Chinese New Year Holiday Notice

As we celebrate the Year of the Snake, please note that our Lunar New Year holiday in Taiwan will be from January 25 to February 2, 2025. During this time, operations involving our Taiwan headquarters, such as R&D and international imports, may experience delays.
